Radisson Hits Miami Beach with an Oceanfront Hotel Signing

Radisson Hotel Group today announced the signing of Radisson Hotel Miami Beach. The hotel will offer 216 guest rooms and suites. With its exceptional oceanfront location, guests will have endless opportunities to relax in the outdoor pool or walk around the beautiful butterfly garden. Those looking for more entertainment can visit the sundeck, which will host special events and poolside barbeques. Prior to opening its doors in Q4 of this year, the property is undergoing a multimillion dollar renovation to further enhance the guest experience with state-of-the-art amenities and services.

“This hotel is a phenomenal addition to our Radisson portfolio, serving as a top destination with stunning oceanfront views and fantastic amenities for every type of traveler,” said Phil Hugh, chief development officer, Americas, Radisson Hotel Group. “We are excited to see our growth in Miami with this hotel opening just a few months before the opening of the newly constructed Radisson RED Miami Airport. Our development team is working diligently to expand our footprint in more key gateway markets, with beautiful hotels like Radisson Hotel Miami Beach.”

The hotel will have several onsite dining options, along with two bars offering a variety of beer, craft cocktails and an extensive wine list. Those planning a meeting or celebration can take advantage of the 6,000 square feet of event space with additional outdoor options. The hotel is also surrounded by vibrant nightclubs and restaurants and other attractions such as parasailing, snorkeling, sport fishing and helicopter tours. Guests will be just minutes away from two golf courses, or for those that want to hang by the beach there are options for kayak, paddle board or jet ski rentals.
