PRESS RELEASE

Radisson Hotel Group Announces Leadership Departure in the Americas

Radisson Hotel Group today announced that Ken Greene, President, Americas has resigned his position with the company for personal reasons effective December 2, 2019. The company has embarked on a search for his replacement.

"I want to thank Ken for his contributions to Radisson Hotel Group," said Federico J. González, Chair, Global Steering Committee for Radisson Hotel Group. "Growth of our brands in the Americas continues to be a key component of our five-year strategic plan and I look forward to building on the strong foundation and owner centric culture we have established."
