PRESS RELEASE

Radisson Hotel Group Strengthens its Americas Sales Team

Radisson Hotel Group today announced two new appointments to its Americas sales team. These new team members will play a vital role in executing sales strategies aligned with the company's 5-year operating plan.

Laurie Czyz joins Radisson Hotel Group as senior director of Meetings & Events and will lead a team executing group sales strategies and partnerships in the Americas. Meetings & Events represents more than 25 percent of the business for Radisson Hotel Group in the Americas. Prior to joining Radisson Hotel Group, Czyz was with SAI Properties, where she led hotel and area sales efforts by increasing both transient and group sales significantly. Czyz also has experience working group and intermediary sales at Starwood Hotels and Resorts, along with group account management and strategic small meetings for Marriott.

Angela Galeziowski joins the team as director of Strategy and Performance. She will focus on developing cutting edge sales technologies, process' and tools. Galeziowski is a proven leader that drives business intelligence and data process improvement. She comes from an extensive career with Intercontinental Hotels where she was vice president, Worldwide Sales Strategic Insights and Planning. In this role, she helped the company achieve financial and productivity goals and objectives. Most recently, she served as a global sales consultant for Choice Hotels International leading the transition of the Cambria national sales team from on-to-off property.

"The addition of two strong leaders like Laurie and Angela will greatly impact our ability to be on the cutting edge of providing value to our hotels with the right customer business, at the right time, based on the hotel's needs," said Ross Hosking, vice president, Sales & Distribution, Americas, Radisson Hotel Group.
