Country Inn & Suites Shows Growth in Canada with a New Hotel Opening in Belleville, Ontario

Country Inn & Suites® by Radisson, a leading upper midscale hotel brand, today announced the opening of Country Inn & Suites by Radisson, Belleville, ON located at 245 North Front Street. The newly constructed hotel features the brand's latest designs with modern interiors and spacious guest rooms and suites. The hotel's convenient location near Highways 401 and 62 makes it the perfect spot for guests traveling on business, cheering on the Belleville Senators or rolling down the slopes at Batawa Ski Hill. Guests also have easy access to the beaches, wineries and other attractions in Prince Edward County.

"The opening of this beautiful hotel signifies our five-year strategic plan in action as we transform our Country Inn & Suites by Radisson portfolio into our Generation 4 product," said Aly El-Bassuni, senior vice president, Franchise Operations, Americas, Radisson Hotel Group. "We are excited to roll out our upgraded design in North America and continue to bring our guests an exceptional hospitality experience."

The hotel offers 69 guest rooms and suites. Guests have access to an onsite fitness center, 24-hour business center, complimentary parking, heated indoor pool and free Wi-Fi. Guests can also enjoy a complimentary, hot breakfast served every morning. The hotel can serve as an excellent space for hosting corporate seminars or special events. There are two meeting rooms with flexible configurations equipped to hold up to 40 guests. Each meeting room features free Wi-Fi and audio-visual equipment.

"I am incredibly proud to open our new hotel under the Country Inn & Suites by Radisson brand after being in business and raising my family in this great city for the past 15 years," said Arwinder Atwal, the hotel's owner. "I am confident this hotel will be a great asset to the community and region for both business and leisure travel."
