PRESS RELEASE

Radisson Hotel Group Shares Update on $50MM Radisson and Country Inn & Suites Renovations with Hospitality Properties Trust

Radisson Hotel Group is proud to announce the completion of the renovations to its Country Inn & Suites by Radisson hotels owned by its longstanding partner, Hospitality Properties Trust (HPT). During the past two months, HPT completed extensive renovations to Country Inn & Suites by Radisson hotels located in Brooklyn Center, Minn.; San Diego, Calif.; and Bothell, Wash. These updates bring each of the properties to the brand's latest Gen 4 design featuring a modern look, convenient amenities and spacious guest rooms and suites.

In addition, Radisson Hotel Group is announcing that HPT has kicked-off significant renovations to four of their properties under the Radisson brand. The following hotels will be updated to the brand's newest design throughout Spring 2019:

- Radisson Hotel Salt Lake City Downtown
- Radisson Hotel Seattle Airport
- Radisson Hotel Nashville Airport
- Radisson Hotel Phoenix Airport

As part of its renovation effort, HPT's Country Inn & Suites in Sunnyvale, Calif., will be converted to a Radisson. This will be the first hotel featuring Radisson's new visual identity in Northern California. The hotel will include the brand's Scandinavian inspired design, along with a spectacular courtyard perfect for relaxation and a gorgeous banquet space for meetings and special events.

"We are thrilled to see the renovations of these eight hotels come to fruition," said Ken Greene, president, Americas, Radisson Hotel Group. "HPT has been an incredible partner committed to the vision and future of our brands, which drives the success of our portfolio of hotels."

These hotels are part of the \$50 million investment HPT is making in its portfolio of Radisson Hotel Group brands. The renovations will bring each hotel up to the latest version of brand design as part of Radisson Hotel Group's five-year plan. In June, HPT also announced its acquisition of Radisson Blu Minneapolis Downtown.
