Country Inn & Suites Opens Hotel Near Syracuse Hancock International Airport Following a Multimillion Dollar Renovation

Country Inn & Suites® by Radisson, a leading upper midscale hotel brand, today announced the opening of Country Inn & Suites by Radisson, Syracuse North, NY located at 401 7th North Street. The hotel recently completed a multimillion dollar renovation featuring the brand's latest design, which includes modern interiors, stylish furnishings and spacious guest rooms and suites. Guests traveling into town have the added convenience of being only three miles from Syracuse Hancock International Airport.

“As part of our 5-year strategic plan, we aim to accelerate the transformation of our Country Inn & Suites by Radisson portfolio to our Generation 4 product,” said Aly El-Bassuni, senior vice president, Franchise Operations, Americas, Radisson Hotel Group. “This hotel is a wonderful representation of that plan in action and a strong partnership with our owner, who is committed to investing in their property and delivering exceptional hospitality to our guests.”

The hotel offers 76 guest rooms and suites, along with pet friendly rooms. Guests have access to an onsite fitness center, business center, free Wi-Fi and a complimentary, hot breakfast. Throughout their stay, guests can treat themselves to complimentary freshly baked cookies as well as coffee and tea.

“We are thrilled to open the doors to our refreshed hotel under the Country Inn & Suites by Radisson brand,” said Naresh Patel, the hotel's owner. “Our hotel's modern design, complimentary amenities and focus on providing a welcoming, home-like atmosphere is guaranteed to make us a success.”
