

Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group Plans to Open its First Radisson Blu in Costa Rica with a Signing in Guanacaste

MINNEAPOLIS (January 18, 2018) – Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group, one of the world’s largest and most dynamic hotel groups, today announced the signing of a new Radisson Blu in Costa Rica. The new-build hotel will offer 100 rooms and is expected to break ground late 2018 with plans to open in December 2020. Radisson Blu Resort & Spa Papagayo, Costa Rica will be located in Guanacaste, which is a province in northwestern Costa Rica bordering the Gulf of Papagayo. This area is known for its breathtaking beaches and the beautiful Santa Rosa National Park, home to a rare dry tropical forest.

“We are thrilled to begin the new year announcing our first Radisson Blu in Costa Rica as we continue expanding the brand in Central America,” said Ken Greene, president, Americas, Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group. “This signing shows our commitment to growing Radisson Blu’s presence in key markets throughout the Americas, providing travelers with first class amenities and engaging hospitality through our Yes I CanSM service philosophy.”

Radisson Blu has a vibrant and contemporary design offering a range of signature features allowing guests to relax and enjoy a stress-free stay. It is one of the world’s leading hotel brands with 300 hotels in operation in 69 countries and territories near major cities, airport gateways and leisure destinations across the world.
