

Ken Greene Joins American Hotel & Lodging Association Board of Directors

MINNEAPOLIS (January 23, 2018) – Ken Greene, president, Americas, Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group has joined the Board of Directors of the American Hotel & Lodging Association (AHLA) as a Brand Representative. Greene proudly accepted the appointment on AHLA’s Board, which represents leaders from all sectors of the lodging industry, including brands, owners and real estate investment trusts (REITs), management companies, independents, and state associations. Greene will be part of vital discussions concerning a broad range of industry and association related issues.

“It is an honor to join this distinguished group of hospitality professionals on the AHLA Board of Directors,” said Greene. “I am excited to be an advocate for our industry standards to ultimately better serve our guests and communities.”

“I am pleased to welcome Ken to the AHLA Board and add his voice to the incredible group of industry leaders that is guiding AHLA’s advocacy efforts and we are excited to build on the tremendous successes of the past year and advance our agenda,” said Katherine Lugar, president and CEO of AHLA. “Without a doubt, our Board members are instrumental to AHLA’s success. Ken’s experience and leadership will serve our organization well and keep our industry moving forward.”
