"The Military 1st program provides us the opportunity to express our gratitude to service members and allows us to engage other guests in that mission through our partnership with Operation Gratitude."

In partnership with Operation Gratitude, Country Inns & Suites has placed letter writing stations in all its hotels throughout the U.S. and is inviting guests to write notes of thanks. Hotels will collect the letters and Operation Gratitude will deliver them to active and deployed service members.

"We are delighted to partner with Country Inns & Suites, a brand that has made a strong and genuine commitment to recognizing the work and sacrifice of our service members," said Chris Clark, chief development officer for Operation Gratitude. "We annually send over 250,000 care packages to U.S. service members deployed overseas and to First Responders here at home. The packages are filled with snacks, entertainment and hygiene products, along with hand-made items such as knit scarves and paracord bracelets, plus personal letters of appreciation – which makes this letter writing campaign with Country Inns & Suites especially exciting and meaningful for us."
